D.C. Attorney General’s Office Dismisses Claim Against DT Global and DT Institute

WASHINGTON, D.C. – DT Global, a leading international development firm, is pleased to announce that the lawsuit brought by the District of Columbia Office of the Attorney General against DT Global was dismissed with no adverse findings against the defendants in July 2023. Similarly, the lawsuit against the independent non-profit, DT Institute, which shares a founder and vision with DT Global, was similarly dismissed in July 2023.

DT Global continues to proudly pursue its vision to be a force for positive change and pursue its profit for purpose mandate. The company is shaping a future where sustainable development and innovation empower individuals, communities, and nations, fostering inclusive prosperity, social equity, and environmental stewardship.

About DT Global

DT Global is shaping a future where sustainable development and innovation empower individuals, communities, and nations. We work in partnership with local stakeholders to foster inclusive prosperity, social equity, and environmental stewardship. Our global team of 2,500 staff and experts work in over 90 countries to solve complex problems in the peacebuilding, governance, economic development, environment, and human development sectors. With a track record of technical excellence and more than 60 years of international development experience and relationships, we deliver innovative solutions that transform lives.
